Shauna Fryer

WHWT Specialist Breeder & Judge of the world-renowned 'Hopeccharm' WHWT Kennel in the UK.

I have been breeding and showing West Highland White Terriers since 1993. I first judged at an Open Show in 1997 and, since then, I now award CCs at West Highland White Terrier Shows and judge all Terriers in the Group. I have judged the Westie Speciality Championship Shows in Canada, Holland and Sweden.

I have an appointment to judge at the WHWTC Championship Show in October, 2020.

I have made up 6 champions in the Breed, in the UK, and many of my dogs have achieved championship status all over the world. One of my proudest moments was breeding the Best in Show at the National Terrier Championship Show – which attracted an entry of over 1700 Terriers. The dog I'm showing at the moment is a Veteran. He still wins Best Veteran in Show, Best in Show at WHWT Championship Shows and Best in Shows at All Breed Terrier Shows.
